M2i Global President & CEO Major General (Ret) Alberto C. Rosende to Speak on Strategic Capital & Supply Security

Atlanta, GA and Reno, NV – September 15, 2025 (Globe Newswire) –Volato Group, Inc. ("Volato") (NYSE American: SOAR), a technology-driven private aviation company and M2i Global, Inc. ("M2i Global") (OTCQB: MTWO), a company specializing in the development and execution of a complete global value supply chain for critical minerals, today announced its attendance at an upcoming Lithium & Strategic Minerals Forum in Nevada on September 18-19, 2025.

M2i Global President & CEO Major General (Ret) Alberto C. Rosende will discuss Strategic Capital & Supply Security as part of Nevada Strategic Growth Initiative's Lithium & Strategic Minerals Forum.

Key topics to be discussed and analyzed include:

- Supply chain security requires assured sourcing and a strategic reserve holding the minerals ("those at most risk of supply disruption and most needed for U. S. national and economic security), available to both private industry and the defense industrial base
- Focused effort on enabling the return of midstream processing capability by de-risking capital investment exposure
- Development of a critical minerals exchange (potentially with free-trade and security partner nations) to create a stable, mineral commodities marketplace that replaces dependency on current exchange under control (and manipulation) of the PRC
- Enforcement of responsible mining practices (environmental, labor, conflict-free, etc.), designed to prevent the results abusive practices (environmental, labor, etc.) creating an artificially low price point for mineral commodities
- Focus on domestic incentives (which are being announced by administration since January 2025) to create stability in extraction and processing investments
