FullPAC Secures GOTV.com Domain and Institutional Funding to Accelerate Growth

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA, Oct. 08, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- FullPAC, Inc., a leading nonpartisan campaign technology provider trusted by over 5,000 political organizations and nonprofits, today announced the acquisition of the premier domain GOTV.com and a capital raise from certain institutional investors. These milestones position FullPAC to dominate the "Get Out The Vote" (GOTV) space, the critical final phase of political campaigns where precision and execution drive electoral success.

The GOTV.com acquisition aligns FullPAC's brand with the heart of political campaigning: mobilizing voters. By securing this domain, FullPAC emphasizes its role as a go-to platform for high-stakes voter communication, empowering campaigns to convert support into votes in the winner-take-all arena of elections.

"GOTV is more than a strategy, it's the decisive moment where campaigns win or lose," said Travis Trawick, CEO and Founder of FullPAC. "With GOTV.com as our flagship corporate identity and fresh capital to fuel growth, we're redefining how campaigns connect with voters in the final mile."

FullPAC's industry-leading platform, anchored by its rapidly growing platform, RoboCent, delivers a comprehensive suite of compliant, data-driven tools, including peer-to-peer (P2P) text messaging, voice messaging, voter microtargeting, and public opinion polling. Its nonpartisan approach and rigorous compliance standards enable FullPAC to serve clients across the political spectrum, from grassroots organizations to national campaigns.

The new funding will accelerate FullPAC's growth, enabling expanded investment in cutting-edge technology, enhanced voter data analytics, and scalable campaign solutions. As a Gold Member of the American Association of Political Consultants, FullPAC is committed to empowering candidates and organizations with innovative, results-driven tools to achieve their outreach goals.
