Wrap to Showcase BolaWrap Remote Restraint at IACP 2019

Visit Booth #2240 to deploy BolaWrap in typical scenarios using Wrap Virtual Reality

TEMPE, Arizona, Oct. 22, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Wrap Technologies, Inc. (the "Company") (WRTC), an innovator of modern policing solutions, today announced their participation at the 126th International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) Conference (Booth #2240) at the McCormick Place Convention Center in Chicago, Illinois. The Company will be exhibiting BolaWrap from Sunday, October 27th through Tuesday, October 29th.

The Company will be displaying its newest BolaWrap 100 remote restraint devices. Attendees are invited to a virtual reality training section where they can deploy BolaWrap remote restraint in various scenarios faced by law enforcement officers on a daily basis.

"We are excited to offer the opportunity for law enforcement professionals to experience BolaWrap in realistic scenarios using our new Wrap Virtual Reality training system," said Tom Smith, President of Wrap Technologies. "It is important to be able to envision scenarios where early engagement can reduce the need for higher levels of force."

IACP 2019 is the largest law enforcement tradeshow in the world. IACP assembles the newest products and the latest technologies at the largest exposition designed specifically for law enforcement.

About Wrap Technologies (Nasdaq:WRTC)

Wrap Technologies is an innovator of modern policing solutions. The Company's BolaWrap 100 product is a patented, hand-held remote restraint device that discharges an eight-foot bola style Kevlar® tether to entangle an individual at a range of 10-25 feet. Developed by award winning inventor Elwood Norris, the Company's Chief Technology Officer, the small but powerful BolaWrap 100 assists law enforcement to safely and effectively control encounters, especially those involving an individual experiencing a mental crisis. #### About IACP and IACP Conference

The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) is the world's largest and most influential professional association for police leaders. With more than 30,000 members in 160 countries, the IACP is a recognized leader in global policing, committed to advancing safer communities through thoughtful, progressive police leadership. Since 1893, the association has been serving communities worldwide by speaking out on behalf of law enforcement and advancing leadership and professionalism in policing worldwide.

The IACP Annual Conference and Exposition is the largest and most important law enforcement event of the year — more than 16,000 public safety professionals come to learn new techniques, advance their knowledge and careers, and equip their department for ongoing success. The three tenants of the conference are training, networking, and exhibit hall education. IACP 2019 spans four days of education and networking. The Exposition Hall is open Sunday-Tuesday of the conference to meet with 600+ vendors showcasing products and services to assist the law enforcement profession.
