KNOW LABS

Know Labs Participating in Second Annual Bernstein CGM Disruptors Conference

SEATTLE--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Know Labs, Inc. \(NYSE AMERICAN: KNW\), an emerging leader in non-invasive medical diagnostic technology, will present at the second annual Bernstein CGM Disruptors Conference www.bernsteinresearch.com on Friday, Nov. 18, 2022. At the virtual event, attendees from across the globe will gather to discuss new developments in continuous glucose monitoring technology.

During the conference, Know Labs will provide an update on its innovative Bio-RFID technology and will share progress on bringing its non-invasive glucose monitoring medical devices to market. Bio-RFID is the patented, proprietary non-invasive medical diagnostic technology platform developed by Know Labs. Bio-RFID uses radio-frequency spectroscopy to detect and measure analytes, such as glucose, in the bloodstream. For more information on Know Labs and Bio-RFID, visit www.knowlabs.co.

About Know Labs, Inc.

Know Labs, Inc. is a development stage public company whose shares trade on the NYSE American exchange under the stock symbol "KNW." The Company's technology uses spectroscopy to direct electromagnetic energy through a substance or material to capture a unique molecular signature. The Company refers to its technology as Bio-RFID™. The Bio-RFID technology can be integrated into a variety of wearable, mobile or bench-top form factors. This patented and patent-pending technology makes it possible to effectively identify and monitor analytes that could only previously be performed by invasive and/or expensive and time-consuming lab-based tests. The first application of our Bio-RFID technology will be in a product marketed as a non-invasive glucose monitor. It will provide the user with real-time information on blood glucose levels. This product will require U.S. Food and Drug Administration approval prior to its introduction to the market.
