

February 12, 2018

Gladstone Capital Announces New Addition to Focus on Southwest Region

MCLEAN, Va., Feb. 12, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Gladstone Capital Corporation (NASDAQ:GLAD) (the "Company") is pleased to announce that Eric Maloy has joined the Company as a Managing Director to open our Dallas, TX office to lead our business development efforts in the Southwest to deliver cash flow oriented debt and equity co-investments financing solutions to lower middle market businesses in the region.

Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Maloy was a Managing Director at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. and served as National Origination Manager for MUFG's specialty lending practice focused on providing asset-based and structured debt products in the United States. Prior to MUFG, Mr. Maloy was a Senior Vice President at Bank of America Merrill Lynch ("BAML"), where he was responsible for originating and structuring new senior debt opportunities in the Southwest. Prior to BAML, Maloy was a Vice President at the CIT Group providing asset-based and leveraged cash flow loans to the middle-market. Maloy started his professional career in public Accounting with Ernst & Young and also has private industry and equity experience. Maloy received his B.B.A. (Accounting) from the University of Oklahoma and his M.B.A. from Southern Methodist University. Eric is a Certified Public Accountant and holds Series 7, 63 and 24 FINRA licenses.

"With over 20 years of experience originating, structuring, and underwriting leveraged loans for middle market borrowers, Eric is a natural fit for Gladstone's middle market focus and we are excited about him being a part of the team," said Bob Marcotte, President.

Gladstone Capital Corporation was founded in 2001 as one of the first publicly traded business development companies focused on investing in debt and equity securities of small and mid-sized businesses. Today, Gladstone Capital is a focused on delivering flexible cash flow oriented debt financing solutions to growth oriented lower middle market businesses. Gladstone Capital is part of the Gladstone Companies family of investment funds which currently manage $2.4 billion of assets. Information on the Gladstone Capital can be found at www.GladstoneCapital.com and information on the Gladstone Companies can be found at www.GladstoneCompanies.com.

Source: Gladstone Capital Corporation: +1-703-287-5893

Source: Gladstone Capital Corporation