Washington Real Estate Investment Trust Acquires 2440 M Street for $50.0 Million

ROCKVILLE, Md.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Washington Real Estate Investment Trust (WRIT) (NYSE: WRE) has acquired 2440 M Street, a Class A medical office building with a three-level parking garage in northwest Washington, D.C. for $50.0 million. 2440 M Street is well-positioned in the District's West End business district, just three blocks from George Washington University Hospital and 1 1/2 miles from Georgetown University Hospital.

The property is 96% leased to 49 tenants and consists of 110,000 net rentable square feet and 252 parking spaces. WRIT expects to achieve a first-year, unleveraged yield of 6.0% on a cash basis and 6.5% on a GAAP basis. The acquisition was funded with cash from operations and WRIT's line of credit.

2440 M Street presents an excellent opportunity for WRIT to invest in a Class A medical office building located in the District. The property received extensive renovation in 2006, which has positioned it to be the preeminent medical office building in Washington, D.C.

WRIT is a self-administered, self-managed, equity real estate investment trust investing in income-producing properties in the greater Washington/Baltimore metropolitan region. WRIT's dividends have increased every year for 36 consecutive years. WRIT's FFO per share has increased every year for 34 consecutive years. WRIT owns a diversified portfolio of 85 properties consisting of 14 retail centers, 25 general purpose office properties, 14 medical office properties, 23 industrial/flex properties, 9 multi-family properties and land for development. WRIT shares are publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:WRE).
