Washington Real Estate Investment Trust Marks 50th Year with Ringing of the NYSE Closing Bell

ROCKVILLE, Md.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Washington Real Estate Investment Trust (WRIT) (NYSE:WRE) commenced its 50th year in business by ringing the New York Stock Exchange closing bell on Friday, January 8. Joining Edmund B. Cronin, Jr., Chairman, and George F. "Skip" McKenzie, President and Chief Executive Officer of WRIT, were members of management and the Board of Trustees.

Founded in 1960, WRIT is the oldest publicly traded REIT formed under the landmark Real Estate Investment Trust Act (the Act). The Act, passed by Congress in late 1960, opened the door for small and retail investors to more easily participate in the investment of large-scale, income-producing real estate.

"We believe our success as a REIT and our track record of dividends is a shining example of what Congress set out to accomplish back in 1960," McKenzie said. "Unlike many other REITs that focus on operating a single property type across several regions, we focus exclusively on operating a diversified portfolio of real estate in one of the nation's best real estate markets - the Washington DC region. Real estate is a business where local market knowledge is critical - and we're now starting our 50th year of owning and managing real estate in the nation's capital. As a public REIT, individual investors can tap into our expertise and own commercial real estate in this top-performing market."

McKenzie added, "WRIT has paid 192 consecutive quarterly dividends at equal or increasing rates. Over the years, the dividend, combined with the share price appreciation has delivered superior total returns. As an example, a $10,000 investment in WRIT on December 31, 1971, with dividends reinvested, would be worth over $2.8 million as of December 31, 2009."

WRIT is a self-administered, self-managed, equity real estate investment trust investing in income-producing properties in the greater Washington metro region. WRIT owns a diversified portfolio of 90 properties totaling approximately 11 million square feet of commercial space and 2,536 residential units. These 90 properties consist of 27 office properties, 20 industrial/flex properties, 18 medical office properties, 14 retail centers, 11 multifamily properties and land for development. WRIT shares are publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:WRE).
