Washington Real Estate Investment Trust Announces Resignation of Trustee John M. Derrick, Jr.

ROCKVILLE, Md.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The Board of Trustees of Washington Real Estate Investment Trust (WRIT) (NYSE: WRE) announces the resignation of John M. Derrick, Jr. effective June 1, 2011.

Mr. Derrick has served on WRIT's Board of Trustees since 1997. During his tenure he chaired both the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees. Mr. Derrick is the retired Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Pepco Holdings, Inc. (formerly Potomac Electric Power Company (PEPCO)). He is also past Chairman of both the Maryland Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Washington Board of Trade.

"John Derrick's business acumen and strong Washington, DC market knowledge have benefited WRIT immeasurably over the past 14 years. During his tenure, WRIT completed $2.4 billion of acquisitions and dispositions in the Washington, DC market throughout various real estate cycles, and John's guidance has always proved invaluable in our decision making. We will miss him greatly," said George F. "Skip" McKenzie, President and Chief Executive Officer.

"John has been an instrumental member of our Board since 1997. WRIT is incredibly fortunate to have enjoyed the service of this leader in the Washington, DC business community for so long. We wish him well in his retirement and thank him for his service and leadership over the past 14 years," added John P. McDaniel, Chairman of the Board.

WRIT is a self-administered, self-managed, equity real estate investment trust investing in income-producing properties in the greater Washington metro region. WRIT owns a diversified portfolio of 86 properties totaling approximately 11 million square feet of commercial space and 2,540 residential units, and land held for development. These 86 properties consist of 26 office properties, 16 industrial/flex properties, 18 medical office properties, 15 retail centers and 11 multifamily properties. WRIT shares are publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:WRE).
