Braddock Place consists of four office buildings and a two-level underground parking garage. The campus is located in the northwest quadrant of Old Town Alexandria at 1310, 1320, 1330 and 1340 Braddock Place and is immediately adjacent to the Braddock Road Metro Station (Yellow and Blue lines), one stop from Reagan National Airport. The properties were built in 1985 and are 92% leased to 13 office tenants including associations and government contractors.

Braddock Place is located within the Braddock Metro Neighborhood Plan, a city-led master plan effort to bring renewed focus to the area immediately surrounding the Metro Station. Several new construction projects are underway or planned, bringing over 500 new high-rise apartment units as well as five full city blocks of new townhouse, condominium, office and retail development.

WRIT funded the acquisition with cash proceeds from its recent sale transactions of the industrial portfolio. WRIT expects to achieve a first year unleveraged yield of 6.9% on a cash basis.

“Braddock Place is a high quality office campus in an excellent inside the Beltway location, on a Metro, which fits perfectly with our long term strategy. We have many capital improvements and upgrades planned in the near term to modernize the common areas and maximize future rental rate growth,” said George “Skip” McKenzie, President and Chief Executive Officer of WRIT.

WRIT is a self-administered, self-managed, equity real estate investment trust investing in income-producing properties in the greater Washington metro region. WRIT owns a diversified portfolio of 75 properties totaling approximately 9 million square feet of commercial space and 2,540 residential units, and land held for development. These 75 properties consist of 27 office properties, 3 industrial/flex properties, 18 medical office properties, 16 retail centers and 11 multifamily properties. WRIT shares are publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:WRE).
