The Alexandria City School Board is a nine-member elected body that adopts policy for the daily operation of Alexandria City Public Schools (ACPS) and ensures that school laws are properly explained, enforced, and observed. ACPS has 19 schools and serves more than 13,500 students.

"We are excited to welcome the Alexandria City School Board to Braddock Metro Center and look forward to their tenancy," said Tom Regnell, Senior Vice President and Managing Director for the Office Division at WRIT. "Leasing this vacancy, which was largely created by the anticipated BRAC relocation of the Defense Security Service to Quantico, VA, is directly attributable to the extensive renovations undertaken at the property, as well as the hard work and creativity of our asset management and leasing teams."

Braddock Metro Center consists of four office buildings located at 1310, 1320, 1330 and 1340 Braddock Place and is immediately adjacent to the Braddock Road Metro Station. Since acquiring the office campus in 2011, WRIT has completed several interior renovations and is currently implementing a revitalized outdoor plaza as well as new conference facility.
