Washington REIT Enters Into $150 Million Unsecured Term Loan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Washington REIT (Washington Real Estate Investment Trust – NYSE: WRE), a leading owner of commercial and multifamily properties in the Washington, DC area, has entered into a $150 million unsecured term loan by exercising a portion of the accordion feature under its existing unsecured credit facility. The term loan has a five and a half year maturity and an interest rate of LIBOR plus 110 basis points, based on the company's current unsecured debt ratings. Washington REIT has entered into interest rate swap arrangements to swap the floating interest rate under the term loan to an all-in fixed interest rate of 2.72% starting on October 15, 2015 and extending until the maturity of the term loan on March 15, 2021. Proceeds from the term loan were used to repay amounts outstanding on the unsecured credit facility. There is no premium or penalty associated with full or partial prepayment of the term loan.

"Along with members of our bank group, we have successfully executed our term loan and arranged to swap the floating interest rate to a fixed rate. The loan presents an attractive source of capital that fits well on our debt maturity ladder. In addition, the terms and size of the loan provide us with greater flexibility to accelerate legacy asset sales," said Stephen E. Riffe, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Washington REIT.

Wells Fargo Securities, LLC and Capital One, National Association served as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners. Wells Fargo Bank, National Association served as administrative agent and Capital One, National Association as syndication agent. U.S. Bank National Association and SunTrust Bank served as the documentation agents. Other lenders included Key Bank National Association, The Bank of New York Mellon, and Branch Banking and Trust Company.

Washington REIT is a self-administered, self-managed, equity real estate investment trust investing in income-producing properties in the greater Washington metro region. Washington REIT owns a diversified portfolio of 56 properties totaling approximately 7 million square feet of commercial space and 3,537 residential units, and land held for development. These 56 properties consist of 25 office properties, 17 retail centers and 14 multifamily properties. Washington REIT shares are publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE: WRE).
