

Pete Kidd

EVP and Chief Human Resources Officer

Pete Kidd is EVP and Chief Human Resources Officer for Kontoor Brands. Kidd is responsible for the company's global human resources strategy and operations including talent acquisition and retention, organizational development, culture and engagement, total rewards, HR information systems, corporate communications and the Kontoor Brands Foundation.

Kidd has more than 30 years of experience in Human Resources, Accounting, and Information Technology. He joined Kontoor Brands in 2022 as Senior Vice President, Global Total Rewards, before being promoted to his current role in 2023. Prior to joining Kontoor, he held various HR leadership roles at SAIC Inc., Perspecta Inc., Sodexo Inc., and Freddie Mac.

Kidd earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from The Pennsylvania State University. He is a project management professional and formally trained executive coach, having received his professional training from Columbia University in New York.