ABOUT IAN

Ian Liao is a Partner at Lucosky Brookman LLP. Mr Liao is a corporate lawyer with two decades of top-tier global law firm experience advising multinational companies on mergers, equity or asset acquisitions and divestitures, joint ventures, and other cross-border transactions involving various industry sectors, including automobile components, internet, e-commerce, med-tech/med device, specialty materials, traditional manufacturing, semiconductor, and food and beverage.

Mr. Liao also works with management teams of leading multinational companies on various corporate and commercial matters involving their US and overseas operations, including working with in-house counsels on the development and implementation of standard corporate documents, forms, and processes, as well as providing regular FCPA, data privacy protection, and compliance training to client's legal and business personnel.

Mr. Liao has been advising clients on cross-border transactions involving the Greater China region since 1998. In particular, he has had extensive experience in transactions between China and the U.S. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Liao was a partner with three global law firms where he was based in Beijing, Shanghai, and Orange County, California. He also worked in Taiwan as a lawyer for eight years. Mr. Liao was a summer extern for the Federal District Court of Hawaii.

MERGERS & AQUISITIONS

The Firm's lawyers have extensive expertise all aspects of the M&A lifecycle, and regularly represent purchasers and sellers in both domestic and cross-border mergers, acquisitions, dispositions and joint ventures in both the public and private arenas. Our attorneys efficiently coordinate with domestic and foreign regulatory authorities, as well as financing sources required to fund a given transaction. Whether structured as a merger, assets sale, joint venture, tender offer, share exchange or other combination, the Firm's attorneys are familiar with all forms of M&A transaction documents, and regularly draft and negotiate stock and asset purchase and sale agreements, merger agreements, joint-venture agreements, operating agreements and related documentation.

Finally, the Firm's attorneys have significant experience representing the Boards of Directors (including Special Committees) of parties to M&A transactions, and regularly assist clients with post-closing integration and related matters.
