UPLISTING MONTHLY

JULY 2023

UPLISTING SUMMARY

The uplisting and cross-listing market remained steady in July, opening the third quarter of 2023 with 2 issuers listing their shares on Nasdaq, raising $5 million.

Both of the uplisting and cross-listing issuers are from the micro-cap space (issuers with up to $300 million market cap).

One of the issuers, operating in the basic materials sector, listed on Nasdaq after closing a $5 million public offering, partnering with the investment banking team at Network1 Capital.

The second issuer, operating in the industrials sector, organically (without consummating an underwritten public offering) cross-listed on Nasdaq from the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Overall, the uplisting and cross-listing market remained extremely selective in July.
