SiriusXM to Air "Meet the Press"

SiriusXM listeners nationwide will be able to listen to NBC's Sunday morning show "Meet the Press" in their cars

Chuck Todd interviews former Vice President Dick Cheney this Sunday

NEW YORK, Dec. 12, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- SiriusXM announced today that an audiocast of NBC's Meet the Press, the iconic forum for political conversation on Sunday mornings, will be available to SiriusXM subscribers nationwide beginning Sunday, December 14.

SiriusXM will air the Meet the Press audiocast via satellite on SiriusXM POTUS channel 124 Sundays at 10:00 am ET. An afternoon re-broadcast of SiriusXM's Meet the Press will also be available through the SiriusXM Internet Radio App on smartphones and other connected devices. Please visit www.siriusxm.com for a complete list of replay dates and times.

Moderated by NBC News Political Director Chuck Todd, Meet the Press is the flagship Sunday morning public affairs program and longest-running broadcast in television history.

Each week, Todd hosts top political leaders, newsmakers, and influential voices to discuss the major issues facing Americans and drive the debate in Washington and beyond.

"Meet the Press is an institution for in-depth, robust analysis of politics and issues," said Dave Gorab, Vice President and General Manager of Talk Programming, SiriusXM. "We're pleased that Chuck Todd and his weekly panel of our nation's top political voices will now be available to SiriusXM listeners at home or on the go."

"Meet the Press has always been more than a TV show -- it's a tremendous brand that we hope is synonymous with the best of political debate on every platform, regardless of where or how you get your fix," said Chuck Todd. "We're thrilled to expand our reach and welcome the audience of SiriusXM listeners."

This Sunday on "Meet the Press," former Vice President Dick Cheney joins Chuck Todd live and in-studio on the heels of the Senate's long-awaited torture report. Cheney will face questions about the CIA's interrogation techniques and their effectiveness, as well as what the Bush White House knew about the details of the program at the time. The wide-ranging conversation will also address the state of the Middle East, immigration reform, and the race for 2016.

POTUS channel 124 is SiriusXM's non-partisan, unfiltered, political news channel offering the latest news from the White House and Capitol Hill with shows hosted by Michael Smerconish, Tim Farley, Julie Mason, and others.

NBCUniversal News Group and SiriusXM also broadcast dedicated channels, including TODAY Show Radio (Channel 108), CNBC, the global leader in financial news (Channel 112), and MSNBC, where listeners can find in-depth analysis of daily headlines and informed perspectives on the political news of the day (Channel 117).

This communication contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements about future financial and operating results, our plans, objectives, expectations and intentions with respect to future operations, products and services; and other statements identified by words such as "will likely result," "are expected to," "will continue," "is anticipated," "estimated," "believe," "intend," "plan," "projection," "outlook" or words of similar meaning. Such forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of our management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond our control. Actual results may differ materially from the results anticipated in these forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: our competitive position versus other radio and audio entertainment providers; our ability to attract and retain subscribers, which is uncertain; our dependence upon the auto industry; general economic conditions; failure of our satellites, which, in most cases, are not insured; the interruption or failure of our information and communications systems; the security of the personal information about our customers; royalties we pay for music rights, which increase over time; the unfavorable outcome of pending or future litigation; our failure to realize benefits of acquisitions; rapid technological and industry change; failure of third parties to perform; changes in consumer protection laws and their enforcement; failure to comply with FCC requirements and other government regulations; and our indebtedness. Additional factors that could cause our results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, which is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and available at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). The information set forth herein speaks only as of the date hereof, and we disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward looking statements as a result of developments occurring after the date of this communication.
