SEI Chosen by Credit Suisse's Asset Management Division to Provide Middle-Office Services for US Municipal Bond Portfolios

SEI to Provide Specialized Operational Support for Premier Alternatives Manager

OAKS, PA -- (Marketwire) -- 06/18/12 -- SEI (NASDAQ: SEIC) today announced an agreement with Credit Suisse's Asset Management division to provide a comprehensive suite of middle-office services for the firm's municipal bond portfolios.

Under the agreement, SEI provides Credit Suisse's Asset Management division with a full range of middle-office services including fixed-income analytics, trade processing, investment accounting, end-client invoicing and reporting, as well as amortization and updated portfolio positions and pricing. SEI also provides daily security reference and position data to support Credit Suisse Asset Management's order-management system as well as their internal data warehouse. Additionally, Credit Suisse's Asset Management division will access comprehensive data management, performance, and risk reporting for all middle-office services performed by SEI via SEI's online Manager Dashboard.

Nigel Hill, Global Head of Liquid Investments Operations in Credit Suisse's Asset Management division, said, "Aligning our middle-office servicing with SEI gives us the opportunity to enhance our daily operations and the services we provide to our growing municipal bond client base."

"We're seeing more and more firms look to outsourcing, not only as a means of gaining efficiencies and technology, but as a way to gain access to timely and accurate information that can better inform critical investment decisions," said John Alshofski, Senior Vice President, SEI's Investment Manager Services division. "We've spent a tremendous amount of time and resources building the type of infrastructure and processes managers would ideally like to have. We look forward to supporting the goals of Credit Suisse's Asset Management division, and continuing to strengthen the great relationship we've established."
