Digital Direct Holdings' Orange142 Names Scott Schult to Newly Created Role as Head of Strategy

Tourism Marketing Leader to Drive Growth for Orange142 & Its Brand Clients

HOUSTON, TX (November 7, 2022)– Direct Digital Holdings, a leading advertising and marketing technology platform, announced today that Scott Schult will be joining Orange142, a demand generation and digital advertising company, in the newly created role of Head of Strategy. Schult will help Orange142's sales, account management, and marketing teams construct a more strategic approach to client outreach, retention, and production innovation. Schult comes to Orange142 from the Nashville Convention and Visitors Corporation, where he served as Chief Marketing Officer.

Before leading marketing at the Nashville Convention and Visitors Corporation, Schult worked as Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce. Earlier in his career, he held key roles at the St. Petersburg/Clearwater Area Convention and Visitors Bureau, Primco Capital Management, Sierra Health Services, and Marriott Hotels.

"Scott brings unparalleled experience and innovative thought leadership in the travel and tourism industry, along with years of insights and relationships that will serve us well in helping Orange142 grow marketshare and market our services to a broad reach of industries," said Mark Walker, CEO, Direct Digital Holdings.

"Orange142 is a high-performance digital media company that successfully delivers unmatched value and transparency to its clients," said Schult. "Their solutions are a big win for the travel and tourism brands I know well, as well as for a range of marketers looking for significant ROI from a team that understand the needs of mid-market businesses."

Schult holds a B.S. in Hospitality & Tourism Management and an M.S. in Marketing, both from Purdue University.
