Halsey to Perform for SiriusXM in Philadelphia

Concert part of SiriusXM's Small Stage Series Presented by American Express

NEW YORK – August 25, 2022 –SiriusXM announced today that multi-Platinum, genre-bending artist Halsey will play a special invitation-only concert as part of SiriusXM's Small Stage Series presented by American Express. The intimate performance for SiriusXM subscribers will take place at Union Transfer in Philadelphia on Tuesday, September 20.

The special concert will feature Halsey performing some of their biggest hits including fan favorites.

"The month of September rolls on as one to remember for our subscribers with top tier artist performances from Pearl Jam and Red Hot Chili Peppers in New York City, and now Halsey in Philadelphia," said Scott Greenstein, SiriusXM President and Chief Content Officer. "As the first outlet in North America to support Halsey, many of our subscribers heard Halsey first on our airwaves and have followed their incredible journey to becoming a major force in music, who has established such a deep, personal connection with their fans all over the world. It feels full circle to have Halsey be part of SiriusXM's Small Stage Series in such an intimate setting for our subscribers."

Halsey's Small Stage Series concert will air on SiriusXM Hits 1 (ch. 2) on Saturday, September 24 at 9:00 pm ET and on the SXM App. Additionally, select songs from the show will air across multiple SiriusXM music channels including The Pulse, Pandora NOW, and 10s Spot.

SiriusXM Hits 1 was the first outlet in North America to support Halsey when they were still an unsigned artist in early 2014 playing their song "Ghost."
