This policy must be read and followed in conjunction with all other applicable policies, standards, training, and guidelines as may be in effect at Huntington.

Policy Statement/Purpose

This policy provides guidelines for possible Recoupment of incentive compensation in appropriate situations to the extent permitted (or required) by law and by the Company's plans, policies and agreements.

Executive Summary

This Recoupment Policy sets forth the situations that trigger a review for possible Recoupment of Incentive Compensation, which generally involve Misconduct (as defined below), violations of law or regulation (including violations of the Dodd-Frank Act or Sarbanes Oxley Act), or behaviors or actions outside the bounds of the Company's overall risk appetite and governance structure. The Company's rights of Recoupment under this Policy are in addition to the provisions allowing for reduction, elimination or Recoupment of Incentive Compensation under the Company's and business unit incentive plans.

Applicability/Scope

An employee's Incentive Compensation may be subject to Recoupment based on Misconduct and/or Performance as defined herein.

Subject to applicable laws and regulations, the terms of the Long-Term Incentive Plan, and other individual awards, this policy shall apply to Incentive Compensation awarded to any employee for periods occurring from and after the date of adoption of this policy by the Board. Following a "Change of Control" of the Company (as defined in the 2018 Long-Term Incentive Plan, or any successor plan, as amended from time to time), this policy shall be inapplicable.

Key Terms, Definitions and Abbreviations

"Change in Control" has the meaning set forth in the Company's 2018 Long-Term Incentive Plan, or any successor plan, as amended from time to time.

"Incentive Compensation" shall include: A. any bonus or other cash incentive payment previously paid or payable including commission payments, and B. any equity compensation, vested or unvested (including without limitation, performance shares and performance share units, restricted stock and restricted stock units, and stock options), and net proceeds of any exercised or vested equity awards.

Long-Term Incentive Plan shall mean the Amended and Restated 2018 Long-Term Incentive Plan, as amended, as well as any successor plan or similar equity-based incentive plan maintained by the Company.

"Misconduct" is an egregious breach of conduct. Acts or omissions that constitute "Misconduct" shall include, but not be limited to:

- fraud
- intentional misconduct
- gross negligence

manipulation of earnings

"Performance" that triggers review shall mean the taking of excessive risk outside the bounds of the Company's risk governance structure. Generally, risk/reward decisions made in the normal course of business and consistent with the Company's established governance processes will not trigger review for "Performance" under this Policy.

"Recoupment" shall refer to recoupment, reimbursement, clawback,or other forfeiture or return of Incentive Compensation.

Rules and Requirements

Objectives

Misconduct and Performance

In the event of Misconduct or Performance that triggers review under this Policy, the Company may require reimbursement or forfeiture of Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee determines whether to require reimbursement or forfeiture in the case of executive officers as they deem appropriate, on a case-by-case basis. The CEO, in consultation with the Chief Human Resources Officer, determines whether to require reimbursement or forfeiture in the case of non-executive officers as they deem appropriate, on a case-by-case basis.

In determining whether to require reimbursement or forfeiture, and if so, the amount of such reimbursement or forfeiture, the Compensation Committee (or CEO in consultation with the Chief Human Resources Officer in the case of non-executive officers), shall take into account such considerations as they deem appropriate, on a case-by-case basis. Such considerations shall include, by way of illustration and not limitation:

- the extent to which the employee's actions or inactions were in violation of the Code of Conduct and Ethics or Colleague Handbook;
- whether the action or inaction could reasonably be expected to cause financial or reputational harm to the Company;
- the egregiousness of the conduct;
- any pending or threatened legal proceeding relating to the act or omission, and any actual or anticipated resolution (including any settlement) relating thereto;
- the likelihood of success in seeking reimbursement or forfeiture under governing law;
- whether the assertion of a reimbursement or forfeiture claim may prejudice the interests of the Company in any related proceeding or investigation, or otherwise:
- whether the expense of seeking reimbursement or forfeiture is likely to exceed the amount sought or likely to be recovered;
- the passage of time since the occurrence of the act generally, determinations to require reimbursement or forfeiture would be considered within three years of the date of the Misconduct or Performance:

• the tax consequences to the affected individual, it being the intent of this policy that any Recoupment be of the net after-tax amount received; and

• other factors as they deem appropriate under the circumstances.

as may be in effect at Huntington.

In the event the Company imposes Recoupment based on Misconduct or Performance, the obligation should be satisfied by reimbursement or forfeiture of all Incentive Compensation determined to be related to all periods impacted by the Misconduct or Performance.

The determinations of the Compensation Committee or the CEO, with the consultation of the Chief Human Resources Officer, need not be uniform with respect to each employee. The CEO and the Chief Human Resources Officer will report any decisions made or actions taken under this Policy to the Compensation Committee.

Special Rules in the Event of Restatement of Financial Statements (This section is intended to cover the situations where recoupment is required and dictated by law – Sarbanes Oxley Act and Dodd-Frank Act.)

If it is determined by the Board of Directors that gross negligence, intentional misconduct or fraud by an employee or former employee caused or partially caused the Company to have to restate all or a portion of its financial statements, the Board, in its sole discretion, may, to the extent permitted by law and the Company's benefit plans, policies and agreements, and to the extent the Board determines in its sole judgment that it is in the best interests of the Company to do so, require repayment of a portion or all of any Incentive Compensation if (1) the amount or vesting of the Incentive Compensation was calculated based upon, or contingent on, the achievement of financial or operating results that were the subject of or affected by the restatement; and (2) the amount or vesting of the Incentive Compensation would have been less had the financial statements been correct.

Further, if the Company is required to restate any of its financial statements because of a material financial reporting violation, the Company shall recover the amount in excess of the Incentive Compensation that would have been payable under the Company's restated financial statements, or such other amount required under the Dodd-Frank Act or any other applicable law or policy. The Company shall recover this amount from any current or former employee who received Incentive Compensation during the three-year period preceding the date on which the restatement is required, or from any other individual specified in the Dodd-Frank Act.

The action permitted to be taken by the Board under this policy is in addition to any and all other rights of the Board and/or the Company under applicable law and contract in the event of a restatement to the Company's financial statements.

Management Responsibility/Accountability

The Chief Human Resources Officer is responsible for ensuring the review and approval of this policy by the Compensation Committee on at least an annual basis.

This policy must be read and followed in conjunction with all other applicable policies, standards, training, and guidelines as may be in effect at Huntington.

The Chief Human Resources Officer is responsible, in conjunction with the Compensation Committee, for ensuring that Management's responsibilities pursuant to this policy are achieved.

Risk Evaluation System

The Chief Human Resources Officer will periodically review this policy to ensure that risks associated with this policy have been appropriately identified and addressed.

Risk Reporting

The Chief Human Resources Officer will periodically report to the Compensation Committee any known material violations of, and material exceptions to, this Policy.

Risk Boundaries

Human Resources Segment Risk is responsible for establishing and monitoring any risk thresholds, limits or boundaries that may be deemed necessary by the Chief Human Resources Officer, to help the Company maintain the objectives of this Policy. Any risk measurements and limits that become necessary will be documented in applicable risk assessments.

Violations of Policy

Management is responsible for ensuring that reasonable mechanisms are in place to identify noncompliance with this policy. Management is responsible for ensuring that identified noncompliance is appropriately escalated to ensure appropriate visibility of risks relating to this policy.

Exceptions to Policy

Management is responsible for ensuring that reasonable mechanisms are in place to monitor for exceptions to this policy. Exceptions to this policy are generally not permitted unless authorized by the laws, rules and regulations addressed by this policy and reviewed with the Compensation Committee, Chief Human Resources Officer, Segment Risk, and/or the General Counsel's Office.
