Huntington Bancshares Names David S. Anderson Controller

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 4 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- David S. Anderson, who has almost 30 years of banking and accounting experience, has joined Huntington Bancshares as executive vice president and controller. He is responsible for maintaining Huntington's accounting principles, practices, procedures and initiatives. Anderson reports to Huntington's chief financial officer, Don Kimble.

Anderson joins Huntington from Citizens Financial Group where he was corporate controller, beginning in 1995. Prior to joining Citizens, Anderson was chief financial officer for a division of Bank One. He also served as bank controller for Michigan National Corp.

"Dave adds a great deal of experience and expertise to our team," said Kimble. "He has a strong background in accounting, accounting systems, financial and reporting controls and merger and acquisition integration. Moreover, he knows our markets because he has lived and been educated in the Midwest."

"I am very excited to join the strong management team assembled at Huntington," said Anderson. "Huntington has accomplished a great deal this year, and is positioned for more growth in the coming years. I am anxious to return to the Midwest, where I have strong roots."

Anderson was a certified public accountant at Touche Ross & Co., and earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Michigan - Dearborn. He earned his master's of business administration at Wayne State University.
