BUFFALO, N.Y., Nov. 4, 2009 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Rand Capital Corporation (Nasdaq:RAND) ("Rand"), a business development company (BDC) that provides capital and managerial expertise for small to medium-sized private companies, announced its financial results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2009 highlighting a net asset value of $3.42 per share, unchanged from June 30, 2009. At the end of the third quarter, Rand's total investment portfolio was valued at $29.1 million, which exceeds its cost basis of $15.0 million, reflecting $14.1 million in net unrealized appreciation.

Allen F. Grum, President of Rand Capital, stated: "It was a busy quarter and we are pleased to share our results. Raising $3.8 million in new capital gives us the flexibility to address new investments at a favorable time. We are pleased with the proposed sale of Kionix to ROHM. Based on the anticipated sale and financial results, we estimate that we will receive $5.6 million versus our $1.5 million in cost. With the potential of $10 million in available capital, we are actively evaluating a handful of attractive investment opportunities and look forward to sharing these with you in the future."
