

Tammy Heller

EVP, Chief Human Resources Officer

Tammy Heller is EVP, Chief Human Resources Officer for Kontoor Brands, Inc. Heller leads global human resources functions across Kontoor's organization, including compensation, benefits, HR systems, recruitment, onboarding, training and retention programs, Inclusion and Diversity and talent management and development.

Heller has more than 20 years of human resources and governance leadership experience. Prior to joining Kontoor Brands in 2021, Heller served as the Chief Human Resources Officer and Senior Vice President at Perspecta, where she helped build a new HR department after the company's merger. She has also served in senior human resources roles at CGI, Capital One, Freddie Mac and BearingPoint.

Heller earned her bachelor's degree in American government and rhetoric and communications studies from the University of Virginia and her master's degree in Organizational Leadership from Marymount University. She was awarded the WashingtonExec's Chief Officer Award for Public Company Chief Human Resources Officer in 2020.