Anchored by SiriusXM host and prominent rock journalist Dave Marsh, the roundtable session features Springsteen answering questions from the Programming team of SiriusXM's exclusive E Street Radio channel about his upcoming tour, songwriting, the longevity of the E Street Band and his upcoming eighteenth studio album, High Hopes.

High Hopes is scheduled to be released on January 14 on Columbia Records and features the members of the E Street Band as well as guitarist Tom Morello and many additional players. Clarence Clemons, who passed away in 2011, and Danny Federici, who passed away in 2008, also appear on several songs of what Springsteen calls "some of our best unreleased material from the past decade."

The in studio interview with Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Radio team will air on Friday, January 10 during Dave Marsh's Live from E Street Nation show at 10:30 am ET via satellite on Bruce Springsteen's E Street Radio, channel 20, and through the SiriusXM Internet Radio App on smartphones and other connected devices, as well as online at siriusxm.com.

After the broadcast, the interview will be available on SiriusXM On Demand for listeners listening via the SiriusXM Internet Radio App for smartphones and other mobile devices or online at siriusxm.com.

E Street Radio offers SiriusXM listeners unprecedented access to the music of Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, including concert broadcasts, rare archival recordings as well as insider reports and breaking news.
