SiriusXM to Broadcast Interactive Panel Discussion on Malaysia Airlines Flight

"Malaysia Air Mystery - A Listener Roundtable" will connect listeners and experts for live discussion about the disappearance of Flight 370

NEW YORK, March 20, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- SiriusXM today announced it will broadcast Malaysia Air Mystery – A Listener Roundtable, a special dedicated to connecting listeners to experts in the fields of aviation, intelligence and national security as it relates to what happened to Malaysia Airlines Flight 370.

SiriusXM host David Webb will moderate the discussion. An extensive panel of experts are expected to appear, including former CIA agent, Bob Baer; former Navy SEAL and pilot, Brandon Webb; forensic psychiatrist from SiriusXM's Doctor Radio channel, Michael Aronoff; former National Transportation Safety Board investigator, Alan Yurman; former CIA intelligence officer, Dr. Michael Scheuer; Director of the Division of Bioethics at NYU Langone Medical Center, Dr. Arthur Caplan; Kerry Patton, security and terrorism professional; and Chief Operating Officer of Aviation International News, Randy Padfield. SiriusXM listeners are invited to call 888-994-6343 or tweet @SiriusXMIndie with #sxm370 to ask questions and discuss possible theories about the plane's disappearance.

"The story of what happened to Malaysia Airlines Flight 370 has captured the world's attention. This special broadcast is designed to be a sounding board where listeners nationwide can share their frustration and grief, participate in dialogue with experts, and try to better understand the legitimate question, 'How can something like this possibly happen?'," said Dave Gorab, Vice President and General Manager, Talk Programming, SiriusXM.

Malaysia Air Mystery – A Listener Roundtable will air Friday, March 21, at 6:00 pm ET on SiriusXM Indie, channel 104, and through the SiriusXM Internet Radio App on smartphones and other connected devices, as well as online at siriusxm.com.

This communication contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements about future financial and operating results, our plans, objectives, expectations and intentions with respect to future operations, products and services; and other statements identified by words such as "will likely result," "are expected to," "will continue," "is anticipated," "estimated," "believe," "intend," "plan," "projection," "outlook" or words of similar meaning. Such forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of our management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond our control. Actual results may differ materially from the results anticipated in these forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: our competitive position versus other radio and audio entertainment providers; our ability to attract and retain subscribers, which is uncertain; our dependence upon the auto industry; general economic conditions; failure of our satellites, which, in most cases, are not insured; the interruption or failure of our information and communications systems; the security of the personal information about our customers; royalties we pay for music rights, which increase over time; the unfavorable outcome of pending or future litigation; our failure to realize benefits of acquisitions; rapid technological and industry change; failure of third parties to perform; changes in consumer protection laws and their enforcement; failure to comply with FCC requirements and other government regulations; and our indebtedness. Additional factors that could cause our results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, which is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and available at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). The information set forth herein speaks only as of the date hereof, and we disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward looking statements as a result of developments occurring after the date of this communication.
