SiriusXM Launches Daily Show with David Webb on SiriusXM Patriot

Former U.S. Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld scheduled to appear June 18

On live, nightly call-in show, leading conservative commentator Webb explores political, economic and national security issues of the day with high-profile newsmakers and listeners nationwide

NEW YORK, June 12, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- Sirius XM Radio (NASDAQ: SIRI) today announced the launch of The David Webb Show, a daily live, call-in show hosted by the conservative commentator and co-founder of New York City's TeaParty 365. Webb's show will explore breaking political, economic and national security news with top-level newsmakers, community leaders, other notable guests and listeners nationwide on conservative talk channel SiriusXM Patriot. Former U.S. Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld is scheduled to join Webb as a guest on his inaugural show on June 18.

Beginning June 18, The David Webb Show will expand to a daily show from a weekly schedule. The show will air nightly live from 9:00 pm – midnight ET on SiriusXM Patriot (channel 125). Other high-profile guests scheduled to join Webb on-air the week of June 18 include: Republican National Committee Co-Chairman Sharon Day; national security experts Dean Popps, Wayne Simmons and Brigadier General (Ret.) Stephen Xenakis, MD, Ph.D.; National Tea Party Federation's Christina Botteri and conservative broadcasters/commentators Sean Hannity, KT McFarland and Charles Payne.

"As the race for the White House and debate over basic political issues become more heated every day, David Webb's new show adds even more depth and excitement to the wide range of political talk shows offered on SiriusXM," said Jeremy Coleman, Senior Vice President of Talk and Entertainment Programming, SiriusXM. "SiriusXM's powerful and diverse lineup of voices and viewpoints offers millions of listeners politics from every perspective and represents the best in all of radio."

"Truth is the authority," said David Webb. "21st century conservatism and the fiscally conservative tea party movement I helped found will have a nightly, national voice that will be heard loud and clear."

Webb will broadcast his SiriusXM Patriot show live from the Republican National Convention and other key events leading up to the presidential election. Webb also hosts David Webb's American Forum, an interview series on SiriusXM Patriot featuring notable guests such as 46th Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney.

Listeners are encouraged to call 866-95-PATRIOT and tweet @davidwebbshow with questions and comments.
