Management Commentary

"The business environment in China continued to present broad challenges during the third quarter," commented Chris Sharng, President of Natural Health Trends Corp. "In addition, protests in Hong Kong posed new complications. As a result, we suspended company-sponsored meetings in Hong Kong as current conditions are not conducive to hosting visitors."

Mr. Sharng further commented, "Beyond the elements that are not within our control, we remain pleased with our leaders' abilities to adapt our business strategy and to continue performing under these circumstances. Subsequent to quarter end, we held a successful event in Macau which was traditionally held during the third quarter. Our fourth quarter order volume trends are already improving following this major event which is a promising development. Lastly, in light of the current business environment, we are implementing cost reduction measures to focus resources on our members and markets. We expect to realize an annualized $5.7 million in savings by the first quarter of 2020."

Balance Sheet and Cash Flow

- Net cash used in operating activities was $3.7 million compared to net cash provided by operating activities of $8.8 million in the third quarter of 2018.
