NetSol Achieves CMMI Level 5 Recertification

CALABASAS, Calif., Aug. 24, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- NetSol Technologies, Inc. ("NetSol" or the "Company") (Nasdaq:NTWK) (Nasdaq Dubai:NTWK), a U.S. corporation providing global business services and enterprise application solutions to private and public sector organizations worldwide, announced today that the Company has achieved CMMI (Capability Maturity Model Integration) Level 5 recertification from the Software Engineering Institute ("SEI") at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh.

CMMI is an internationally recognized quality assurance standard for enhancing and evaluating an organization's software development processes. Maturity Levels range from 1 to 5, with 5 being the highest ranking. According to a 2006 report from SEI, the use of CMMI-based process improvement standards is closely correlated with improvements in product quality, project performance, and organizational performance. NetSol initially achieved Level 5 status in 2006. The reappraisal process is performed every three years by SEI-certified consultants and takes three to six months to complete. The Company is the only IT solutions provider in Pakistan and one of 162 companies in the world to be rated CMMI Level 5. Companies that have achieved Level 5 status include IBM, Motorola, Northrop Grumman, Lockheed Martin, Raytheon and the Boeing Company.

NetSol's Chairman and CEO, Najeeb Ghauri, commented, "We are honored to once again be recognized as a member of the world's top echelon of software companies. Our recertification represents a landmark achievement for NetSol and a tremendous validation of our business model. The requirements for achieving Level 5 status have evolved and intensified considerably since our initial certification, and we are proud to have maintained the same standard of excellence in the IT software industry that we have always pursued. Adhering to CMMI standards has enabled us to successfully direct the efforts of our global offices, improve our operating efficiency, and deliver the highest caliber of products and services to our clients worldwide. Sales of our enterprise software products remain strong, and we have every confidence that our steadfast dedication to quality will result in the continued growth of our business."
