C-Bond Systems Receives Orders Valued at Approximately $150,000 for its Ballistic-Resistant Film System to Protect Municipal Buildings in a Houston-Area County

C-Bond BRS is independently validated to provide NIJ Level I, Level IIA, Level II, and UL 752 ballistic-resistant protection

HOUSTON, Oct. 16, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- C-Bond Systems (the “Company” or “C-Bond”) (OTC: CBNT), a nanotechnology company that improves and strengthens brittle materials, announced today that it has received orders valued at approximately $150,000 for C-Bond BRS, its ballistic-resistant film system, to protect various municipal buildings in a Houston-area county.

C-Bond BRS is a ballistic-resistant film system that increases the structural integrity of glass through nanotechnology. C-Bond BRS is validated to provide NIJ Level I, Level IIA, Level II, and UL 752 ballistic-resistant protection by an independent third-party laboratory.

C-Bond BRS consists of the patented C-Bond glass strengthening technology, which increases glass strength and flexibility by chemically bonding to the defects randomly distributed on the glass surface to help prevent breakage, and a private-label security film.

“We are proud that this customer, which, like many others, has requested to keep its identity private for security purposes, chose C-Bond BRS to help secure various municipal buildings in the Houston area, where the Company is headquartered,” stated Scott R. Silverman. “While we hope it is never needed, we believe that adding another level of protection to guard the county’s employees and citizens gives peace of mind to our community.”
