"We are beginning to see impressive results from what we have been building over the past two and a half years. I am very pleased to introduce our company's business model and present our exciting plans for the future as a leading clean technology provider in the energy management industry," stated Mr. Tienor.

About SeeThruEquity, LLC

SeeThruEquity, LLC is an investment research and corporate access firm that produces high quality research reports on small- and micro-cap companies with less than $1 billion in market capitalization. These companies are typically underserved by the traditional Wall Street analyst establishment. SeeThruEquity is unfettered by any ties to investment banking or trading, and distributes its high impact research as an approved firm for consensus estimates on Thomson Reuters, CapitalIQ, FactSet, Zacks and StockTwits, as well as to its own audience of investors from its corporate website.

SeeThruEquity's philosophy is focused on delivering an unbiased, institutional quality research product for uncovered or under-covered companies to all levels of investors in the investment community and at absolutely no charge to the reader of the research or the company being covered. The firm seeks to build relationships between corporate issuers and institutional and sophisticated investors via compelling investor conferences and forums as well as non-deal road shows.
