CBRE Leads Global Real Estate Investment Sales Activity in 2023

CBRE Holds Top Spot for Major Global Property Types

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CBRE was the top-ranked firm for global commercial real estate investment sales during 2023, according to MSCI Real Assets—the 13th consecutive year that CBRE has claimed the top spot.

MSCI Real Assets credited CBRE with a 24% market share across all property types on a global basis in 2023—an 800-basis point lead over the nearest competitor.

CBRE held the global top spot last year across the four largest asset classes—office (23% market share), industrial (29%), retail (22%) and multifamily (22%).

“CBRE Capital Markets facilitates considerable cross-border investment by leveraging our global platform and diverse sector expertise,” said Chris Ludeman, global president of Capital Markets for CBRE. “Through integrated, comprehensive services spanning assets and regions, we provide holistic real estate solutions for investors worldwide. As market dynamics evolve, our teams remain committed to providing practical guidance that helps investors to maximize value.”
