Gunjan Soni to Join CBRE Group Board of Directors

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CBRE Group, Inc. (NYSE: CBRE) today announced that Gunjan Soni, a senior executive with deep technology and international business experience, has been appointed to the company's Board of Directors, effective July 15.

Ms. Soni is chief executive officer of Zalora, the leading fashion e-commerce platform in Southeast Asia, and chief operating officer of its parent Global Fashion Group (GFG).

"Gunjan brings a strong combination of technological enablement expertise and international business experience to our Board," said Bob Sulentic, CBRE's chair and chief executive officer. "Her background will be invaluable as digital enablement plays an increasingly key role in driving real estate solutions and our footprint overseas continues to grow."

"CBRE holds an impressive position in the commercial real estate market," Ms. Soni said. "I am looking forward to lending my technology expertise and insights as CBRE charts a course for continued global growth and builds on its leadership position."

Before joining Zalora, Ms. Soni was an executive officer at companies in India and Singapore and a partner at McKinsey & Company. She brings over 20 years of experience in technology, strategy and the Asian business landscape, starting her career as a software engineer. Ms. Soni was named to Fortune Magazine's "40 under 40" business leaders in India.

A native of India, Ms. Soni resides in Singapore. She holds a BE in computer science from Government Engineering College Bhopal and an MBA from XLRI Jamshedpur.
