Information Systems Associates Reports Results for its Third Quarter Ending September 30, 2009

Third Quarter 2009 Revenue of $271,000, Up 99% from Second Quarter 2009 Revenue of $136,000

PALM CITY, Fla., Nov. 17 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Information Systems Associates, Inc. (OTC Bulletin Board: IOSA), a datacenter optimization software, services and solutions company, today announces revenues of $271,000 for its third quarter ended September 30, 2009. Sequential quarter-to-quarter revenue growth was up 99% for the quarter ended September 30, 2009 compared to net revenues of $136,000 for the quarter ended June 30, 2009.

Third Quarter 2009 Highlights

- Revenue was $271,000 for the quarter ending September 30, 2009.
- Gross profit was $270,000 for the quarter ending September 30, 2009.
- The Company completed the development of its proprietary OSPI Version 2.0 and began beta testing with a Fortune 100 company.

Joe Coschera, Information Systems Associates' CEO, stated: "We are very pleased to announce a significant growth in revenue over our prior quarter. IT spending seems to be picking up following the major slowdown experienced over the past twelve months. The recovery comes at a perfect time for us with the completion of our beta testing on OSPI Version 2.0 in November of 2009 and its expected launch in December 2009."
