Information Systems Associates, Inc. Announces That Its OSPI Patent Has Been Issued

PALM CITY, Fla., June 29, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Information Systems Associates, Inc. (OTCBB:IOSA), a datacenter optimization software, services and solutions company, is pleased to announce that the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office has recently issued a patent for the Company's On Site Physical Inventory (OSPI) solution process. OSPI is a proprietary application that runs on a handheld device which provides data center managers with a solution that automates data collection and validation services within the data center. There is currently no other product in the marketplace that is able to automate data collection and validation in data centers with the accuracy and speed offered by the OSPI solution.

Joe Coschera, President and Chief Executive Officer of Information Systems Associates, Inc. commented, "We are excited to have reached the end of the patent application process, resulting in the successful issuance of a patent on our OSPI solution process. We believe that protecting our intellectual property is a critical step to ensuring our ability to separate ISA from potential competitors."
