Relmada Therapeutics Announces Closing of Public Offering and Full Exercise of Over-Allotment Option

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Dec. 14, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Relmada Therapeutics, Inc. (Nasdaq: RLMD), a late-stage biotechnology company addressing diseases of the central nervous system (CNS), today announced the closing of a previously announced upsized underwritten public offering of 10,147,059 shares of its common stock, which includes the full exercise of the underwriters' option to purchase 1,323,529 additional shares of common stock, at a public offering price of $17.00 per share. The gross proceeds to Relmada from the offering, before deducting the underwriting discounts and commissions and other offering expenses, were approximately $172.5 million. Relmada intends to use the net proceeds from the offering, together with existing cash, cash equivalents, and short-term investments, to fund research and development activities for its clinical development programs related to Relmada's lead product candidate, REL-1017 (esmethadone), which is being developed as a rapidly acting, oral agent for the treatment of depression and other potential indications, as well as for working capital and general corporate purposes.

Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC, Jefferies and Guggenheim Securities acted as joint book-running managers for the offering.

The securities described above were offered by Relmada pursuant to a shelf registration statement on Form S-3 that was declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on August 21, 2020. The offering was made only by means of a written prospectus and prospectus supplement that form a part of the registration statement. A final prospectus supplement relating to the offering will be filed with the SEC and will be available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Copies of the final prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, when available, may also be obtained by request by contacting Goldman, Sachs & Co.
