Daley has been a Coca-Cola director since 2011. He served as mayor of Chicago from 1989 to 2011. Daley currently serves as executive chairman of Tur Partners LLC, an investment and advisory firm focusing on sustainable solutions within the urban environment, and is Of Counsel at Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, a full-service law firm.

"I've had the honor and pleasure of working with Richard Daley for many years, and I thank him for his valuable contributions to our company and system," said Chairman Muhtar Kent.

With Daley's retirement, the Coca-Cola board will have 13 members, pending director elections at the annual meeting.
