2021 Disability Equality Index Awards Synchrony Top Score for Fifth Consecutive Year

Synchrony named as a 'Best Place to Work for Disability Inclusion'

STAMFORD, Conn., July 14, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Today, Synchrony (NYSE: SYF) announced that for the fifth consecutive year, the company's commitment to diversity and inclusion helped advance it to the top of the 2021 Disability Equality Index \(DEI\).

Since Synchrony's founding, we have created an inclusive culture that drives innovation and diversity of thought.

Synchrony is honored to be recognized as a "Best Place to Work for Disability Inclusion" based on the 100 percent score it received from the American Association of People with Disabilities (AAPD) and Disability:IN on their 2021 DEI, the most comprehensive disability inclusion assessment tool.

The 2021 DEI measured key performance indicators including culture and leadership, enterprise-wide access, employment practices, community engagement, and supplier diversity.

"Synchrony is proud and honored to be recognized as a great place to work for people with disabilities," said DJ Casto, Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer of Synchrony. "Since Synchrony's founding, we have been intentional in creating a caring, inclusive culture that drives innovation and diversity of thought. By offering opportunities for all, our people are able to advance their careers and make a difference in our communities."

Through Synchrony's People with Disabilities+ Network, one of eight Diversity Networks at the company, thousands of employees come together globally to make a difference in the lives of people with disabilities in the workplace and in the communities they serve. More than 10,000 employees are active across these employee resource groups which help attract, retain and develop diverse talent. Over the past several years, Synchrony has partnered with Disability Solutions, a division of Ability Beyond, to build a more robust pipeline of candidates with self-identified disabilities and to implement best practices for hiring, manager training and employee accommodations.

"We are so pleased to partner with 319 companies this year on the Disability Equality Index.

Part of corporate commitment to disability inclusion is recognizing your stance and using it as an 'aha moment' to drive the business investments needed to scale change," said Jill Houghton, President & Chief Executive Officer of Disability:IN "Inclusion and accessibility cut across the enterprise, from cultural representation in the workforce, to technology acceleration, to incorporating supply chain diversity. These are tangible opportunities that leading companies can leverage to create sustainable impact for their business and brand."

Synchrony, consistently recognized as a Best Place to Work, has always been and remains committed to diversity and inclusion for all. The company has one of the most diverse boards in the financial services industry, which includes four minority directors and four women directors.

Last year, the company elevated diversity and inclusion to one of its eight corporate strategic imperatives, with Board-level accountability. Synchrony's senior-level D&I task force and leaders companywide are focused on driving measurable results across all areas of the business and communities, including increasing diverse employee talent at all levels of the workforce, advancing financial opportunities, growth and wellness among diverse communities and businesses and increasing Synchrony's commitment to address deeply rooted gender and racial inequality and disparities within the communities the company serves. About the Disability Equality Index®

The Disability Equality Index (DEI) is a comprehensive benchmarking tool that helps companies build a roadmap of measurable, tangible actions that they can take to achieve disability inclusion and equality. Each company receives a score, on a scale of zero (0) to 100, with those earning 80 and above recognized as a "Best Place to Work for Disability Inclusion."

The DEI is a joint initiative of the American Association of People with Disabilities (AAPD), the nation's largest disability rights organization, and Disability:IN, the global business disability inclusion network, to collectively advance the inclusion of people with disabilities. The organizations are complementary and bring unique strengths that make the project relevant and credible to corporations and the disability community. The tool was developed by the DEI Advisory Committee, a diverse group of business leaders, policy experts, and disability advocates. Learn more at: www.DisabilityEqualityIndex.org.

About the American Association of People with Disabilities (AAPD)

AAPD is a convener, connector, and catalyst for change, increasing the political and economic power for people with disabilities. As a national cross-disability rights organization AAPD advocates for full civil rights for the 50+ million Americans with disabilities. Learn more at: www.aapd.com.
