Applied BioSciences Launches Patented New Product CanaGel(TM)

LOS ANGELES, CA / ACCESSWIRE / June 19, 2018 /Applied BioSciences Corp. (OTCQB: APPB) (the "Company"), a diversified cannabinoid therapeutics company focused on the medical, bioceutical and pet health industries, today announced that the Company has entered into a marketing and distribution agreement with CanaGel™ to launch their first patent-protected product, Hemp Oil Gel Melts.

The Company continues to increase sales of hemp-derived products through its wholly owned divisions, Remedi and TherPet, and is now pleased to report that it will be adding the patented CanaGel™ Hemp Oil Gel Melts to its comprehensive suite of product offerings.

"Since all CanaGel™ products are non-GMO, vegan, paleo, gluten-free, and sugar-free, we knew that consumers would be interested in an exciting new alternative to the existing oils, capsules, edibles and chewables on the market," commented Chris Bridges, President of Applied BioSciences Corp.

Independent lab tests show that after 2.5 minutes of contact, 80% of Phytocannabinoids were absorbed in vitro, and after just 5 minutes, virtually 100% of the nutrient-rich Phytocannabinoids were absorbed in vitro.

Per the agreement, the Company will leverage its North American and European marketing and distribution channels to assist CanaGel™ in launching its first doctor-developed product.

"We are excited to be selected by CanaGel™ as its first marketing and distribution partner," commented JJ Southard, Vice President of Products at Applied BioSciences. "By leveraging our strength in the hemp-derived products space, we expect to make waves with what lab tests show to be one of the highest bioavailable phytocannabinoid supplements on the market."
