Alico, Inc. Appoints Dan L. Gunter as Chief Executive Officer

LABELLE, Fla., June 30, 2008 (PRIME NEWSWIRE) -- Alico, Inc. (Nasdaq:ALCO), a land management company, announced that Dan L. Gunter, President and Chief Operating Officer, was named Chief Executive Officer of the Company effective July 1, 2008. Mr. Gunter will succeed John R. Alexander who held the CEO position since February 2005, following Mr. Alexander's retirement. Mr. Alexander will continue in his role of Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Gunter has served as the Company's President and Chief Operations Officer since April 17, 2006. He previously served as Executive Director of the Florida Department of Citrus from 1986 through 1992 and again between July 2004 and April 2006. Mr. Gunter also served as an officer in various executive positions for Lykes Bros. Inc. and its subsidiary Vitality Beverages, Inc., with a focus on sales and marketing management, as well as specific operating P&L responsibilities. He has also held the positions of Assistant and Associate Professor in the Food and Resource Economics Department at the University of Florida.

Mr. Gunter stated, "I am honored by this opportunity and look forward to continuing to work for the shareholders in order to maximize profits and persist in the exploration of opportunities for diversification. Alico's reputation, financial strength and employees are well positioned for growth and building shareholder value."

Mr. Alexander stated, "I think that Mr. Gunter is the perfect choice to lead this Company forward in the direction we have developed. I remain excited and challenged every day with my responsibilities at Alico and I intend to continue to be an active Chairman of the Board."
