Medexus Pharmaceuticals Launches New Metoject® Subcutaneous 15mg Dosage for the Treatment of Rheumatoid Arthritis, Psoriasis and Psoriatic Arthritis in Canada

MONTREAL, May 07, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Medexus Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the “Company” or “Medexus”) (TSXV: MDP, OTCQB: PDDPF), today announced the launch of a new Metoject® Subcutaneous 15mg dose in Canada. Metoject Subcutaneous is a pre-filled syringe of methotrexate with a pre-attached subcutaneous needle that is approved in Canada for the treatment of rheumatoid arthritis, psoriasis and psoriatic arthritis.

Metoject Subcutaneous 15mg is currently reimbursed by the Provinces of Saskatchewan, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland and Labrador through their provincial formularies, as well as the Yukon Non-Insured Health Benefits (NIHB) and Correctional Services Canada. As of May 1, 2019, Metoject Subcutaneous 15 mg is reimbursed in the Province of Ontario by the Ontario Drug Benefit Program (ODB). Metoject Subcutaneous 15 mg dose is in addition to the dosage strengths of 17.5mg, 20mg, 22.5mg and 25mg currently offered in Canada by Medexus.

Ken d’Entremont, Chief Executive Officer of Medexus, commented, “The new 15mg dose of Metoject Subcutaneous is an important addition to the Metoject line in Canada, as it gives physicians more flexibility to accurately prescribe an appropriate strength for their patients, and offers patients a more convenient and comfortable option. We expect this dose to be a significant portion of our Metoject volume going forward.”

Forward Looking Statements

This press release contains “forward-looking information” within the meaning of applicable securities legislation. Forward-looking information includes, but is not limited to, statements with respect to future business operation and results, including with respect to future profitability and financial results. All statements, other than of historical fact, that address activities, events or developments that the Company believes, expects or anticipates will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are generally identifiable by use of the words “may”, “will”, “should”, “continue”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “estimate”, “believe”, “intend”, “plan” or “project” or the negative of these words or other variations on these words or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company's ability to control or predict, that may cause the actual results of the Company to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from current expectations include, among other things, without limitation, the risk that the operations of the Company, Medac Pharma, Inc. and Medexus Inc. will not be integrated successfully, the Company's inability to commercialize products in the medac GmbH portfolio, including but not limited to the Metoject® Subcutaneous 15mg dose, or its inability to realize upon potential opportunities presented thereby, as well as other risks applicable to the Company disclosed in the Company's public disclosure record on file with the relevant securities regulatory authorities. Although Company believes that the expectations and assumptions on which such forward-looking information is based are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on the forward-looking information because Company can give no assurance that they will prove to be correct. Since forward-looking information addresses future events and conditions, by its very nature they involve inherent risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results, performance or achievement could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, the forward-looking information and, accordingly, no assurance can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking information will transpire or occur, or if any of them do so, what benefits that Company will derive therefrom. Management has included the above summary of assumptions and risks related to forward-looking information provided in this press release in order to provide securityholders with a more complete perspective on the Company's future operations and such information may not be appropriate for other purposes. Readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned that the foregoing lists of factors are not exhaustive. Additional information on these and other factors that could affect the Company's operations or financial results are included in reports on file with applicable securities regulatory authorities and may be accessed through the SEDAR website (www.sedar.com). The forward-looking statements included in this news release are made as of the date of this news release and the Company does not undertake an obligation to publicly update such forward-looking statements to reflect new information, subsequent events or otherwise unless required by applicable securities legislation.
