Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory, Inc. Board Authorizes New Stock Repurchase Program

COMPANY DECLARES QUARTERLY CASH DIVIDEND OF $0.10 PER SHARE

DURANGO, Colo., Feb. 19 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory, Inc. (Nasdaq: RMCF) (the "Company"), which franchises gourmet chocolate and confection stores and manufactures an extensive line of premium chocolates and other confectionery products, today announced that its Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase of approximately $3 million of the Company's outstanding common stock in the open market, or in private transactions, whenever deemed appropriate by management.

The Company recently completed a $5 million stock repurchase program that was authorized by the Board of Directors in May 2007. Under this authorization, the Company repurchased approximately 412,000 shares of its common stock at an average price of $12.13 per share.

During the past eight years, the Company has repurchased approximately 3,909,000 shares of its common stock (adjusted for stock splits and stock dividends) under Board authorizations, at an average price of $5.09 per share.

"Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory continues to enjoy strong operating cash flows that are well in excess of our capital spending requirements," stated Bryan Merryman, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. In light of the recent pullback in our stock price, along with the completion of our previous share repurchase program and our confidence in the Company's long-term prospects for revenue and earnings growth, the Board has authorized management to invest up to $3 million to repurchase additional shares of our common stock."

The Company also announced that its Board of Directors has declared a fourth quarter cash dividend of $0.10 per common share outstanding. The cash dividend will be payable March 14, 2008, to shareholders of record at the close of business February 29, 2008. The Company began paying cash dividends in September 2003 and has increased the quarterly dividend payout ten times since its initial cash dividend was paid.

Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory, Inc., headquartered in Durango, Colorado, is an international franchiser of gourmet chocolate and confection stores and a manufacturer of an extensive line of premium chocolates and other confectionery products. As of February 15, 2008, the Company and its franchisees operated 331 stores in 38 states, Canada and the United Arab Emirates. The Company's common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol "RMCF".
