Apollo Reports Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2022 Results

NEW YORK, Feb. 09, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Apollo Global Management, Inc. (NYSE: APO) (together with its consolidated subsidiaries, "Apollo") today reported results for the fourth quarter and full year ended December 31, 2022.

Marc Rowan, Chief Executive Officer at Apollo said, "After a long period of market excess, our guiding principles – purchase price matters, excess return per unit of risk, and aligned investing – delivered mightily in what was a transformational 2022 for Apollo. We generated record fee related earnings, record normalized spread related earnings, and record organic inflows as our clients recognized our differentiated investing capabilities and entrusted us with their capital. Additionally, we made substantial progress on our three key growth pillars – origination, global wealth, and capital solutions – while identifying new initiatives to drive further growth in support of our multi-year business plan. We enter 2023 with great momentum and a focus on execution."
