BOCA RATON, Fla., Aug. 27, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Greenlane Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq: GNLN) ("Greenlane"), one of the largest global sellers of premium cannabis accessories, CBD and liquid nicotine products, today announced a partnership with Bouquet for exclusive U.S. distribution of its full spectrum CBD oil products, including tinctures and capsules offering a variety of strengths.

Founded by Philadelphia investor, entrepreneur and philanthropist Max Tuttleman, Bouquet provides premium quality hemp oil products sourced from state-of-the-art facilities. Bouquet CBD products are rigorously tested for purity by independent third party laboratories. Bouquet's focus is to bring consistent high quality products to the hemp market.

Greenlane will leverage its expansive North American distribution network of more than 11,000 retail locations, including licensed cannabis dispensaries, and smoke and vape shops, to make Bouquet's CBD products available to consumers across the U.S.

We are pleased to enter into this exclusive distribution partnership with Bouquet and look forward to broadening awareness and availability of their premium CBD products."

Greenlane is well positioned as a CBD category captain, building a portfolio of the most respected brands in the sector through exclusive distribution agreements. Over the past several months, Greenlane has signed exclusive distribution agreements to build a portfolio of the best existing and new CBD offerings, including exclusive deals with Bloom Farms, Cookies, Select, Mary's Nutritionals, Slang – and now with Bouquet. The pace of these particular partnerships illustrate that Greenlane continues to be the partner of choice for cannabis brands that seek to build global brands with hemp-derived CBD products.

"Bouquet is committed to bringing more science and understanding to the CBD industry and our partnership with Greenlane is a key step in helping us deliver on that mission," said Max Tuttleman, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Bouquet. "With an emphasis on the science behind our formulations, we pride ourselves on making it easy for our customers to understand the chemistry behind the product, and empower them to make an informed decision when purchasing CBD products.
