ORLANDO, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--The Central Florida Business Brunch, a local call-in business program, airs weekdays from 10 a.m.-Noon on News Talk 660AM WORL. The show is hosted by Scott Kidd of NoJokeBiz and his segment co-hosts, Nyda Bittmann-Neville with The Magnolia on Fridays from 11-Noon and Greg Brewer with Excellence in Sales on Tuesdays from 11-Noon.

The Business Brunch features guests from the Central Florida business, governmental, political, academic, non-profit and journalistic worlds. Well-known Central Florida figures such as Bill Peeper of the Orlando/Orange County Convention and Visitors Bureau; U.S. Congressman Tom Feeney; Orange County Commissioner Linda Stewart; Altamonte Springs Mayor and National Center for Simulation Director Russ Hauck; Florida Manufacturers Association President Al Stimac; Ms. Ann Sonntag of the Orlando Business Journal; and Orlando Sentinel political columnist Scott Maxwell, are among the movers and shakers who are featured. Guests are asked to describe the positive impact of their role on business and the community as a whole.

The Business Brunch encourages businesses and organizations in the broadcast area to call in during the program and advertise their businesses free of charge. These live interviews and free call-in features are credited with the show's amazing growth in popularity, as evidenced by the move from a weekly one-hour format to a daily two-hour format in less than 90 days.

With the incredible growth of new business start-ups and capital investment potential from newcomers to Central Florida, Business Brunch rapidly is becoming the must-hear show for area professionals.
