Synchrony and KTM North America Partner to Sponsor Babes in the Dirt 2025 Off-Road Adventure Series to Highlight Women Off-Roaders

Synchrony to Serve as the Official Financing Partner for Babes in the Dirt Sales and Services, KTM to Provide Demonstrations of its Newest Motorcycles

STAMFORD, Conn. and MURRIETA, Calif., June 25, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Synchrony (NYSE: SYF), a premier consumer financial services company, and KTM North America, Inc., a subsidiary of KTM AG, Europe's leading high-performance street and offroad motorcycle manufacturer, today announced their joint sponsorship of the Babes in the Dirt 2025 Off-Road Adventure Series. Founded in 2014, Babes in the Dirt is currently the largest network and event series for women off-roaders in the US.

Babes in the Dirt was created to transform the landscape of the powersports industry and redefine the image of the rider to be inclusive of everyone and welcoming to all. Now in its 11th year, the organization has played a pivotal role in helping to increase women's participation—today, women represent the fastest-growing segment in powersports.

"Synchrony supports Babes in the Dirt's mission to open powersports to women all over the world. Over the last year alone, Synchrony has hosted a series of events to unite women in the powersports community and encourage more to follow suit," said Susan Medrano, Senior Vice President & General Manager, Outdoors, Synchrony. "Now, as a sponsor of this year's Off-Road Adventure Series, we are excited to not only drive awareness but to help women hit the trails by offering financing, which plays a critical role in rider participation."

As the sponsor, Synchrony will be the official financing partner for all motorcycle sales and parts, garments and accessories sold through Babes in the Dirt. According to the organization, 23% of 2024 attendees did not already own their own bike but had intentions of purchasing one within the year. For those women, financing was key.

"Babes in the Dirt was created more than a decade ago with the mission of transforming the landscape of the powersports industry by opening the door for anyone and everyone to enjoy these off-road adventures," said Ashmore Ellis, Co-Founder and Owner, Babes in the Dirt. "Now with the help of Synchrony and KTM, we are making it even easier for aspiring women riders of all ages to access the bikes, services, and accessories they need to experience the thrill of off-roading."

As a manufacturer of class-leading motorcycles, KTM knows all about powersports racing. During the 2025 Off-Road Adventure Series, the company will showcase its latest motorcycles and offer participants the opportunity to try them out on-site.

"Growing the sport of motorcycling is not only a passion of ours here at KTM, it's a mission that we are excited to share with all Off-Road Adventure Series participants," said Christy Hall, Vice President, Marketing, KTM North America. "For the upcoming season, we will be working closely with Babes in the Dirt in an effort to help more women experience the excitement and adventure that comes with being on two-wheels."

About Babes in the Dirt

Babes in the Dirt was intentionally designed 11 years ago to transform the landscape of the powersports industry and redefine the image of the stereotypical motorcyclist to look and be simply "anyone" and welcome "everyone". To accomplish this, we built a foundation that amplifies unforgettable experiences designed for women to feel supported and comfortable in the spirit of adventure to diversify motorcyclists overall. We are forever evolving & creating ways to bring new riders into the sport through on site events and more. Our goal is to show women that this is just the beginning of their story which can be shared with friends, family, and continues with them throughout their entire lives with off-road riding. From our new riding events to our most challenging adventure series that span worldwide and everything in between, there is space to learn, grow, and challenge yourself each step of the way with Babes in the Dirt.
