Featuring Richter engaging directly with listeners, new show debuts today exclusively for SiriusXM subscribers

New episodes premiere every Wednesday on Conan O’Brien Radio (ch. 104) and the SiriusXM app

NEW YORK - June 26, 2024 - SiriusXM today announced that actor, comedian, and writer Andy Richter, whom Esquire declared “one of the best podcast hosts on the air right now,” is launching a new show in which he’ll take calls directly from fans. Beginning today at 4pm ET/1pm PT, listeners can hear “The Andy Richter Call-In Show” every week on Conan O’Brien Radio (ch. 104) and the SiriusXM app.

Over three decades of late-night television, Andy Richter has spoken with the biggest names in showbiz, but his favorite conversations have always been the after-hours dinner party chats with friends and family. Now he is bringing those freewheeling discussions to SiriusXM, and you’re the guest! Each week on “The Andy Richter Call-In Show,” he will invite callers to weigh in on questions such as: Have you ever seen a ghost? What’s the worst job you’ve ever had? Who was your first crush?

Along the way, Richter is joined by his favorite comedians and friends, including Sona

Movsesian, Andy Daly, Nicole Byer, and Laurie Kilmartin, to help field these calls and share their own hilarious stories.

"I'm really looking forward to getting on the air at SiriusXM and mixing it up with great guests and great callers," said Andy Richter. "I'm doing this show because I knew it would be a lot of fun, and that's exactly what I'm planning on providing for the listeners."

"Andy's fans have long enjoyed as he interacts with well-known people, both onscreen and on his podcast," said Jim McClure, Vice President of Talk & Comedy Programming at SiriusXM. "With his new call-in show, his audience will now be able to talk directly with him, becoming part of the action. We're pleased that SiriusXM can help make this fan connection happen, and can't wait for everyone to hear it."
