Herbalife Announces Series of Job Fairs

175 Jobs to Meet Consumer Demand for Its Nutrition Products

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Global nutrition company Herbalife (NYSE: HLF) announced today that in order to meet consumer demand for its nutrition products, it is hiring approximately 175 people in California and Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and will host a series of job fairs and an education fair this summer and fall.

Listings for many of these new jobs can be found on Herbalife's website, which can be found here. Herbalife will host job fairs beginning in September, details for which will follow, and be posted here. Job seekers can click on Herbalife's career page to view and apply for current positions.

As part of its expansion in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Herbalife will continue its series of job fairs that began when the company announced it was doubling its work force in the State in 2015.

An education fair in partnership with the Consortium of Southern California Colleges and Universities (CSCCU) will take place in October at Herbalife's North America offices in Torrance, California.

Herbalife and CSCCU's education fair is designed to bring awareness to Herbalife's tuition assistance program and provide employees easy access to information on local colleges. The fair will also showcase adult education programs to encourage employees to further advance their knowledge and expertise through a degree or specialized certificate program.
