Capstone Regains Compliance With Nasdaq Minimum Bid Price Listing Rule

CHATSWORTH, Calif., Nov. 24, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Capstone Turbine Corporation (www.capstoneturbine.com) (Nasdaq:CPST), the world's leading clean technology manufacturer of microturbine energy systems, received a letter from The Nasdaq Stock Market notifying the company that it has regained compliance with The Nasdaq Stock Market's minimum bid price listing requirement. The letter noted that because the closing bid price of the company's common stock has been at $1.00 per share or greater for the last 10 consecutive business days, the company has regained compliance with Listing Rule 5450(a) (1) and the matter is now closed.

"We value our Nasdaq listing, as it is important to our company, stockholders and customers, and we are pleased to have regained compliance on the market," said Darren Jamison, President and Chief Executive Officer of Capstone Turbine. "Maintaining our listing is but one part of our comprehensive plan to drive future shareholder value along with our new Capstone Finance JV, operating cost reduction and re-sizing the company, enhanced C1000 product for CHP applications, and diversification of our technology into additional market verticals and geographies by leveraging our 100 new global distribution salespeople," added Jamison.
