LANDSEA HOMES NAMES NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF LAND IN FLORIDA

Longtime Florida Homebuilding Executive to Oversee Land Development Operations and Strategy for Division

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., Jan. 19, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- Landsea Homes Corporation (Nasdaq: LSEA) ("Landsea Homes" or the "Company"), a publicly traded residential homebuilder, announced today that Dan Kaiser has been named Vice President of Land for the company's Florida division.

"Dan is an excellent asset to the Landsea Homes Florida division team serving as our new Vice President of Land," said Jeff Wochner, Central Florida Division President, Landsea Homes. "He has nearly 30 years of proven leadership in all facets of homebuilding here in Orlando that make him uniquely qualified for the role. His expertise in land development, entitlement, acquisition strategy, industry and seller connections will benefit us greatly as we continue to build high quality, sustainable homes and rapidly expand in the Central Florida market."

Prior to joining Landsea Homes, Kaiser served as General Manager of Land for Ryan Homes and before that, managing the land needs for various homebuilding companies including M/I Homes, K. Hovnanian Homes and Centex Homes. He was also a former Division Controller and oversaw sale and construction operations while with Centex Homes.

"This is a great time to be a part of Landsea Homes and I'm looking forward to helping find the right opportunities for the company to expand and further its goal of becoming the leading homebuilder in Florida. We have strong land positions in place in diverse locations throughout Central Florida, and over 25 actively selling communities which makes it exciting to come to work every day," said Kaiser.

Earlier this week, Landsea Homes closed on 113 new homesites in Apopka, Florida for a new community called Oak View. Land development is anticipated to begin this spring and sales are slated to begin in early 2024.
