Applied BioSciences Begins Offering Coronavirus Test Kit to the General Public to Combat Spread of COVID-19

Los Angeles, California, March 31, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Applied BioSciences Corp. (OTC: APPB) (the "Company"), a vertically integrated company focused on the development and commercialization of novel, science-driven, synthetic cannabinoid therapeutics/biopharmaceuticals that target the endocannabinoid system to treat a wide-range of diseases, today announced that, further to its recent March 25th, 2020 press release regarding the Company's diversion of production production capacity to product hand sanitizer, it has begun shipping Coronavirus Test Kits (the "Kits" or the "Tests") in the United States.

These Coronavirus Test Kits are CE certified, accurate, affordable and reliable results in under 15 minutes. Using a finger prick, the Kits detect both early markers and late stage markers, IgM and IgG antibodies in a human blood sample. The Tests' results are shown in under 15 minutes. The IgM and IgG Rapid Coronavirus SARS COVID-19 nCoV Test Kit has been widely used by the Chinese Government to detect infections and is now available globally. This is an expansion of products that will help battle the spread of the coronavirus ("COVID-19").

These CE certified Kits can be used for Homes, Schools, Hospitals, Law Enforcement, Military, Public Servants or anyone wanting immediate and private results.

The Home Test Kits can be found on the Company's online store: <https://remedishop.com/product/coronavirus-test-kit/>.

The team at Applied BioSciences is prioritizing the development of additional products to help battle the spread of the COVID-19. Working with our team of doctors and scientists at our certified testing facility, we partnered with a leading international distributor to make a testing kit available in the U.S. The company is positioned to begin filling large domestic and international orders of these disposable one-use Tests within weeks.

Applied BioSciences will donate a portion of our production capacity and inventory to schools, health facilities, and other organizations who provide critical services to help with social distancing and isolation measures. Please contact us at donations@appliedbiocorp.com for more information.
