Salem Stations Will Sponsor Concert Series Featuring Today's Leading Christian Music Performers

Salem Communications Corporation (Nasdaq:SALM), the leading radio broadcaster focused on religious and family themes programming, announced today its Summer 2003 Concert Series line-up. The schedule for the 2003 Summer Concert Series is as follows:

Big Splash 2003 Saturday, June 21, 2003 Ocean Grove, NJ

Hosted by Salem's WWDJ

Commenting on Salem's 2003 Summer Concert Series, Chuck Finney, National Program Director for The FISH, said, "Our 2003 line-up features perhaps our best group of performers ever. Along with the great music, these concerts offer us a meaningful way to come together in prayer and celebration. We hope to have fun while shedding light on today's social and political issues, encouraging thoughtful reflection on our lives and raising money to help those in need."

Salem Communications Corporation, headquartered in Camarillo, California, is the leading U.S. radio broadcaster focused on religious and family themes programming. Upon the close of all announced transactions, the company will own and operate 92 radio stations, including 58 stations in the top 25 markets. In addition to its radio properties, Salem owns the Salem Radio Network, which syndicates talk, news and music programming to over 1,500 affiliated radio stations; Salem Radio Representatives, a national sales force; Salem Web Network, the leading Internet provider of Christian content and online streaming; and Salem Publishing, a leading publisher of contemporary Christian music trade and consumer magazines.
